Salutation

Preparation for Worship

As you prepare, consider this Scripture from Matthew 22:37-40, "Jesus replied: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments."

Welcome To Worship

WORSHIP is the most important privilege and responsibility of you, God's people. Everything else you do in the church - evangelism, education, fellowship, service - flows from your worship of the Lord. Therefore, present your best to Him.

If you are visiting with us today, we welcome you and invite you to fill out a visitor's card found in your pew and place it in the collection plate.
